<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Plant Type:</th>
<th>Perennial</th>
<th>Evergreen</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Flower Color:</td>
<td>Pink</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flowering Time:</td>
<td>March to July</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Height:</td>
<td>.5 feet</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Width:</td>
<td>2 feet</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exposure:</td>
<td>Sun-light shade</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Water Req.:</td>
<td>Moderate -every 3-4 weeks or when top 3-4&quot; of soil is dry.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Habitat Value:</td>
<td>Butterfly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Comments and Maintenance:
Matting low perennial makes cheery pink and yellow pea-flowers in spring and summer. This California native can be found in wet spring/summer dry meadows. Likes well drained soil, moderate to little watering, though it will go dormant if allowed to dry out.

Photographer: Darlene LaMont